PRODUCT DESCRIPTION

With a guard to prevent oil splashes, there is a mysid on the back of the lid that allows you to drain the oil from the fried food! Even if you put tempura on the lid, it won't turn over. It has a stopper with a great sense of stability! Designed to return the drained oil to the pot! The dripping oil returns to the pot through the groove in the lid! With a convenient thermometer that shows when to fry! The lid can be disassembled, so it's easy to clean up afterwards!

Compatible with Gas stove, IH & Halogen
